GOD for Dummies is Dobry's attempt to break down some of the basic parts of religious dogma that have so often been deflected by the standard response of "It's a mystery." Certainly God is too immense for us to fully understand. But there are many things that God wants us to understand "simple things that have been so shrouded in theological gobbledygook that even the theologians who develop it get all wrapped around the axles themselves. This book is an attempt to unwrap some of this "deep theology" and just lay it out flat in plain English. It doesn't have to be as complicated as the elites and deep thinkers try to make it.
