Marc Augé N Lugares

Marc Augé ' s Non-Places:

Introduction to an Anthropology of Supermodernity is fascinating. His book is useful because it offers a theoretical framework for understanding why we think of some places the way we do, in particular there is a description of places that can put us in contact with a social structure, because there is a very

This invasion of the world by what Marc Augé calls “ non-space ” results in a profound alteration of awareness: something we perceive,
but only in a partial and incoherent manner. Augé uses the concept of

Verso

Marc Augé (born September 2, 1935 in Poitiers) is a French anthropologist . In an essay and book of the same title, Non-Places: Introduction to an Anthropology of Supermodernity (1995), Marc Augé coined the phrase "non-place" to refer to spaces where concerns of relations, history, and identity are erased. Examples of a non-place would be a motorway, a hotel room, an airport or a supermarket.

Pop star Marc Bolan has been killed in a car crash in south-west London. The 29-year-old former T-Rex singer was killed instantly when the car being driven by his girlfriend, Gloria Jones, left the road and hit a tree in Barnes. Miss Jones - an American singer who had just returned from the US - broke her jaw and is suffering from shock.

A self-promotion as a café writer is explicit in Kesten's Dichter im Café and in Roth's Im Bistro nach Mitternacht. The café/bistro becomes a refuge for the German Exilliteratur. In the other three Roth-texts and in Kracauer's texts the myth of the literature café cultivated by Marc Augé is destroyed.
